Dad touched many people in his life. He knew good is the evil to best and therefore knew good was not his goal, the best was! He took pride in knowing he did his best in everything he touched. He lived by a simple godly principle, treat others the way you want to be treated. He helped lead many young men and women to Christ. That was one of his main purposes in life! Matthew 25:23 says, His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your master!
